NOTE FOR THE DIRECTOR

Bill:

Ralph Nader called this afternoon regarding preparing a publication which will include the profiles of the top Administration people. He told me it would be entirely objective and based largely upon personal interviews which he and Ron Brownstein (387-8034) are conducting. I have known Ralph Nader for a number of years and he has always treated me fairly. He has already had interviews with 60 top government officials, including 7 out of the top 8 DOD officials. In addition to speaking to Weinberger and Carlucci, they have also interviewed Don Regan, Secretary Pierce and Drew Lewis.

They would very much like to interview you, Bill. I was candid with Ralph and told him I would not recommend any such interview if they were going to do a critical piece. I told him how I felt about you and the high regard in which I held you. He assured me that the interview would be entirely objective. You might want to speak to Weinberger or Regan to find out what they thought of the interviews. I await hearing from you so I can give your position to Nader.
